DECATUR

MISS.

Dear Alma Mater, we sing thy praise;

In sweet remembrance of our college days;

Comrades and teachers, friends so true;

We give our love to you;

53695

Long may we cherish the days spent with thee;

Happy days of dreams, work and play so carefree.

Deep in our hearts rest your memories true;

Here's all our love to you.

DEDICATION

In the history of East Central Junior College are written the names of many devoted teachers whose ennobling influence lives on in the lives of their students. Outstanding among these is a woman, not very tall in stature, but of lofty proportions in her contribution to the cause of education and her devotion to this college. God has endowed her with an endless supply of energy, an innate love of teaching that grows stronger as the years go by, a genuine appreciation of the nobler things of life, a generous share of wisdom, and a spark of nature's fire that makes her, not one fashioned in the common mold, but an individual, loved and respected. In recognition of her inestimable and unselfish service, we respectfully and gratefully dedicate this, the 1959 WO-HE-LO, to MISS UNA HARRIS, instructor of English and sponsor of the TOM-TOM since 1945.

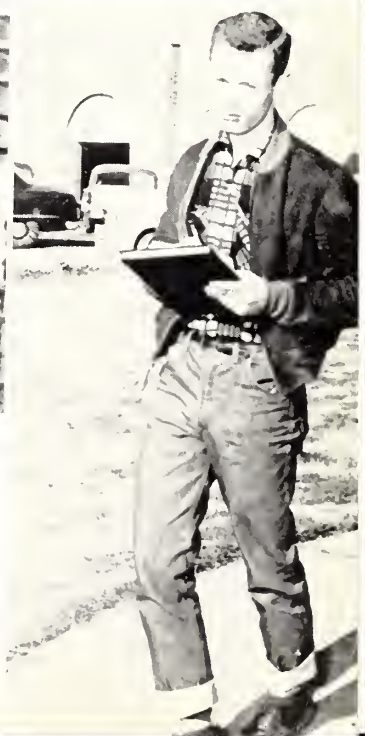
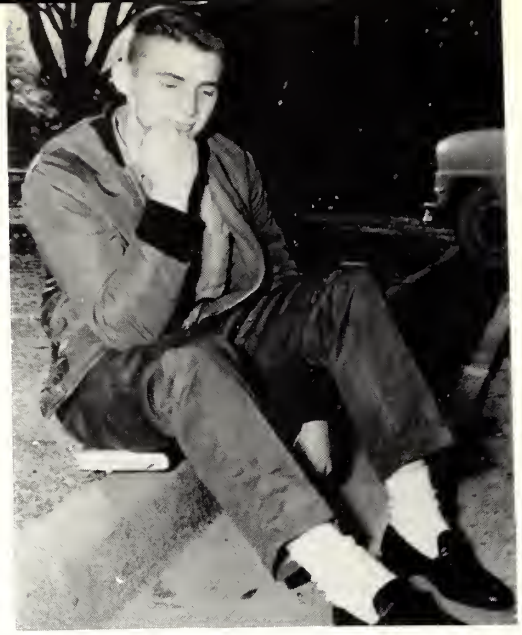
Faye McNair and Donna Kirksey get social highlights in the girls' dormitory.

Opal Freeman gets the latest dope on administrative activities from Registrar Fergurson.



Reporter Jimmy Lawson interviews Coach Oswalt for the latest sports scoop, while Tommy Hogue, Don Howington, and Mack Shelton look over their stories for one last time. Harold Graham races with time to get his story in before the deadline.

Sports columnist Dave Singleton browses competitive editions to compare notes with rival sports writers before settling down to "Spotlight on Sports."



Jimmy "Buck" McGreger, feature writer, takes time out from his studies to "sift" over ideas for one of his frequent TOM-TOM features.

"Now What Is My Opinion....." Columnist Keith Hudson selects chair of faculty master-mind in which to compose his "In My Opinion" column.

Jimmy Cagle, Jimmy Barfield, Marvin Miller, Janette Waggoner, Anna Kilgore, and Billy Gross are off on another trip to get advertisements.

Photographers W. C. Eichelberger and Bill Joyner work patiently to finish TOM-TOM pictures before the "press night" deadline.

TOM-TOM typists are never lonely or bored on press night. They are: Afton Germany, Beverly Edwards, Barbara Black, Dinky Morris, Beth Winstead, Carolyn Staton, and Bobbie Blanton.

Everyone on the executive staff has a different idea for making up the dummy.

Members of the circulation staff, Joe Kea, Donna McDowell, and John Upchurch, complete their task as they send TOM-TOMS from here to the Pacific and across the Atlantic.

Miss Una Harris, sponsor of the TOM-TOM, makes a last minute check of an issue before it goes to the public Sponsor of business division, Julius Weeks, ponders the red ink entries in the TOM-TOM books.
